Tythes to arise and renew from the said Commons and waste grounds in the said Parish of Haxey bears to the right and interest of the said Archbishop as impropiator and his Lessee in the said Tythes and not to take such proportion in Land but that the same should be compensated for by an adequate yearly corn rent or sum of money to be paid in lieu thereof to the said John Lamb and his successors by the said Archbishop of York and his successors and his and their Lessee and Lessees for the time being and in consideration of such yearly corn rent being charged upon the whole of the said Tythe Allotment in the said Parish of Haxey it had been agreed between the said Archbishop and his Lessee and the said John Lamb that the whole of the said Tythe Allotment should be awarded and allotted to the said Archbishop and his Lessee in manner therein and hereinafter mentioned

And also reciting that the said Archbishop Joseph Marris and John Lamb had agreed to refer the Apportionment of the said tenth part to be set out upon the division of the said Commons and waste grounds in the said Parish of Haxey and the value of the share and interest of the said John Lamb therein and the corn rent to be paid in lieu thereof to the award and final determination of the said Thomas Fletcher and John Renshaw then of Owthorpe in the County of Nottingham Gentleman since deceased Arbitrators mutually chosen by them or to such umpire as thereinafter mentioned in case the said Arbitrators should not agree upon their award

It was enacted that the said special Commissioners last named should have full power and authority and they were thereby required to set out and allot unto the said Archbishop of York and his successors and the said Joseph Marris his Lessee for and during such term estate and interest as they were entitled to in the other Hereditaments and premises comprised in the said lease of the Rectory of Haxey and in lieu of and in full satisfaction for all Tythes both great and small arising and renewing and which should thereafter arise and renew out of all the commons and waste grounds in the said parish of Haxey such parcel or parcels of that portion of the said Commons and waste grounds which should be allotted by the said general Commissioners to the said parish of Haxey as should (quantity quality and situation considered) exclusive of all other Allotments to the said Archbishop and his Lessee in respect of their other property be equal in value in the judgment of the said special Commissioners last named to one tenth part and no more of the said portion last mentioned of the said Commons and waste grounds and that the said Thomas Fletcher and John Renshaw should be and they were thereby nominated and appointed Arbitrators for ascertaining determining and awarding the proportion to be set out for the said Vicar of Haxey and his successors of the said tenth part of the same portion of the said Commons or waste grounds and for making a valuation thereof and for ascertaining the Corn Rent to be paid in lieu thereof in manner thereinafter mentioned

And whereas the said Thomas Fletcher having departed this life before the said Arbitration was proceeded upon the said Archbishop of York and the said Joseph Marris his Lessee elected and appointed the said James Dowlan to be an Arbitrator in the place and stead of the said Thomas Fletcher deceased pursuant to the power for that purpose vested in them by the said Act of Parliament

We the last named special Commissioners therefore do set out allot and award unto the Archbishop of York and his successors and to the said Joseph Marris as his Lessee
